DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office action is in response to Application No. 09/535,581, filed on 03/27/2000.
2. Claims 1-23 are presented for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in-

- (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or
- (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

4. Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (e) as being anticipated by Atkinson et al. (U.S. Pat. No. 5,892,904).

As per claims 1, 3-7, 9-16, 18, 20-23 Atkinson discloses a certification or signing method that ensures the authenticity and integrity of a computer program, an executable file, or code received over a computer network. The method is used by a publisher or distributor to sign an executable file so it can be transmitted with confidence to a recipient over an open network like the Internet (which is seen to read as Applicant's claimed invention wherein it is stated that a method for detecting copyright violation), comprising the following steps:

receiving streamed data segments of suspected copyright infringing material (see., abstract, col 3, lines 13-40); generating an electronic signature for each said data segment of said suspected material (see., abstract, col 3, lines 13-24, figs 3 and 4);

comparing each said signature for each said data segment of said suspected material to electronic signatures of original copyright material (see., col 3, lines 20-24, col 6, lines 34-67, col 7, lines 1-67, col 8, lines 1-29). The steps of displaying and examining data segments matching(see., col 5, lines 58-63 and the examination or matching step is disclosed in col 3, lines 13-24, please note that the matching process also includes examining step).

Art Unit: 3621

As per claims 2, 8, 17, 19 Atkinson discloses the claimed method of extracting streamed data from the Web onto a server connected to the Internet(see., abstract , Fig 2A) ; and converting said streamed data to a binary stream (see., abstract, Fig 2A, please note that the modem is capable of converting streamed data into binary stream).
